AFRICA EXPERIENCE

Since 1991, I have been involved in numerous matters involving African mining interests, including diamond and titanium mines in Sierra Leone; copper, cobalt, zinc, and diamond mines in The Democratic Republic of the Congo; mineral sands deposits in Madagascar; zinc deposits in Zambia; marine diamond mining in Namibia; and diamond deposits in Angola.

Since 2002 I have represented the government of the Democratic Republic of the Congo in various actions involving debt collection litigation brought by U.S.-based vulture funds and expropriation claims brought against the Congo for the alleged unlawful expropriation of a gold mining operation in the Congo.

In 2006 I was the founding chairman of Empower African Children and served in that role until 2007. I was asked in 2008, to resume that position.

2005-2011 - FG Hemisphere Associates, LLC v. The Congo and S.N.E.L.

Engaged by the Democratic Republic of the Congo to defend against efforts by U.S.-based vulture funds to execute on Swiss Arbitration Awards arising out of a sovereign debt default action. Successfully defended against efforts to execute on judgment by seizure and forced sale of diplomatic properties.

2004-2007 - Adastra Minerals Inc. v. Empresa Nacional de Diamantes de Angola, E.P.

Engaged by Adastra Minerals Inc. and IDAS, its wholly owned subsidiary, to pursue a claim against Empresa Nacional de Diamantes de Angola, E.P. the Angolan State diamond company, for unlawful expropriation of a mining concession in Angola.

2002-2003 - Red Mountain Finance, Inc. v. The Congo and Central Bank of the Congo

Engaged by the Democratic Republic of the Congo to negotiate resolution of sovereign debt arrears judgments of the High Court of Justice, Queens Bench Division, Commercial Court London. Settlement of the claims facilitated an International Monetary Fund Poverty Reduction and Growth Facility of approximately US $750mm and a Belgian, French, South African and Swedish contribution of a bridge loan to clear the debt arrears of approximately $450mm with the International Monetary Fund.

2002 - Banro Resources Corporation v. The Democratic Republic of the Congo

Engaged by the Democratic Republic of the Congo to defend it against claim of expropriation of gold mining assets. Settled by the government on favorable terms.

1998 - America Mineral Fields v. Anglo American Corporation of South Africa

Retained to pursue tortious interference claims against Anglo American Corporation of South Africa:, DeBeers Consolidated Mines, and affiliated entities arising out of a mining project agreement between America Mineral Fields and the Democratic Republic of the Congo for a copper/cobalt mine. Settled on confidential terms favorable to the client.
